

A REPORT ON -REPUBLIC DAY STUDENT EXPOSURE PROGRAM AT “ THE NURSERY”

On Republic Day, "The Nursery" located at "The Wild Mahseer", Balipara, Assam in collaboration with Assam Investment Advisory Society(AIAS) orchestrated a day-long exposure program for Forest Fringe School students, creating a symphony of learning and joy.

The seamless program, organized by "The Nursery," included a captivating drawing competition and an enlightening botanic trail guided by a knowledgeable botanist at the Eastern Himalayan Botanic Ark (EHBA), followed by a delightful lunch.

The meticulous organization made the day a perfect blend of education and nature, providing Forest Fringe School students with cherished memories.

"The Nursery" emerged as an ideal setting for students to learn and immerse themselves in nature, offering a day filled with both educational insights and enjoyable experiences. through this enriching Republic Day program.

Students learning about plants & birds during the botanic trail

Students participating in the drawing competition

Group photo with the botanists and coordinators